

Uneasy Money
(PG, Wodehouse, 1916)
The humorous vicissitudes of Lord Dawlish, who inherits 5 million, but becomes a serially disappointed groom.

This audiobook and many others are available, free, online at the non-profit Librivox.org. To listen, point your camera at the QR code, go to the Web page and click on a chapter.

Alice in Wonderland
(L. Carroll, 1865)
The best reading of this classic, ever. Funny and so, so relaxing!

This audiobook and many others are available, free, online at the non-profit Librivox.org. To listen, point your camera at the QR code, go to the Web page and click on a chapter.

Cranford
(E Gasgill, 1853)
A hilariously tongue in cheek comedy about social goings on in a small Victorian era village.

This audiobook and many others are available, free, online at the non-profit Librivox.org. To listen, point your camera at the QR code, go to the Web page and click on a chapter.

Three Men & a Maid
(PG Wodehouse, 1922)
A romantic comedy involving a disastrous talent quest, a lawyer with a revolver, a bulldog and a suit of armour!

This audiobook and many others are available, free, online at the non-profit Librivox.org. To listen, point your camera at the QR code, go to the Web page and click on a chapter.

London Labor and the London Poor
(Henry Mayhew, 1851)
A delightful deep dive into the street professions of London. (Not suitable for children. If you are sensitive, skip the knacker, dogfight & prostitution chapters!)

This audiobook and many others are available, free, online at the non-profit Librivox.org. To listen, point your camera at the QR code, go to the Web page and click on a chapter.

